

What we showed

We showed that if all edges have different weights, then there is only one MST, and Kruskal's algorithm produces it.

If edges can have the same weight, a slightly different proof is needed to show that Kruskal's algorithm produces a tree with the same optimal weight.