Summary (so far)

We
- Talked about recursively defined functions and how to write their running times recursively
- Defined "Big-O"
- Provided techniques for establishing that a function f is $O(g)$
- Remembered that big-o is an upper bound and is not necessarily tight!