Theorems about trees

- Every tree $T = (V, E)$ with at least two vertices has at least two nodes that have degree 1 (hint: consider a longest path in the tree)
- If a tree $T = (V, E)$ has n vertices, then it has $n - 1$ edges