Proving theorems about graphs

Theorem: Every finite simple graph has an even number of vertices of odd degree.

Proof: Every edge connects two vertices.
Hence, SUM (the sum of the degrees in a graph) is always even (Handshaking Theorem).