

Persistence

- Work only on topics that you are passionate about
- Work only on hypotheses that you believe in
- Don't draw negative conclusions prematurely and give up easily
 - positive results may be hidden in negative results
 - In many cases, negative results don't completely reject a hypothesis
- Be comfortable with criticisms about your work (learn from negative reviews of a rejected paper)
- Think of possibilities of repositioning a work