

Big Ideas – Models

- Models are not reality.
- We use different models for different reasons.
- A model should be as simple as possible, but not simpler (Einstein)
- To answer more questions, the model must be more complex.