

Overall Goal: Properties

- Nitrogen gas is inert, hydrogen gas is very reactive (with oxygen).
- Water is a liquid, methane is a gas.
- Oil and water don't mix.

To understand properties, we need to know molecular structure, which means we need to understand bonding, which means we need to understand atomic structure.