

Electrons

- Electrons are most likely to be found near the nucleus
- Electrons could be any distance (very far even)
- We do not know how the electron moves
- ORBITALS = regions of 90% probability