

Enantiomers

identical in most properties differ in: 1. interaction with polarized light

2. interaction with chiral environments

Light interacts with molecules when it passes through them

[interaction of electrical fields]

When light encounters mirror image of molecule, interaction is reversed