

What is our Class About?

Two key concepts lie at the core of technology.

- information: data, statistics, or knowledge about something or someone
- computation: the act of mathematical computation ...

... according to one dictionary

What is technology?

Use of computation and distribution of information improve people's lives.

