

All Services Provided “As Is”, Without Warranty

None of these companies guarantees you anything—certainly not for free.*

If they decide to stop doing business with you,

- whether because it’s not in their interest or
- because they go out of business, or
- they sell to another company who doesn’t want your business,
- your data are gone.

You may want to have a copy somewhere?

*If you pay, I suggest reading the fine print carefully.
