

Control Example: Internet Service Providers

Let's focus on a control question.

If you buy Internet service from my company, am I allowed to ...

- Limit your bandwidth?
- Limit your bandwidth for specific applications?
- Prevent or restrict you from accessing some services?
- Sell your ability to access services to someone else?
(In other words, only allow you to make use of services that pay me.)