

Does Payment Matter? Is Internet a Telephony Service?

Did you say “yes” because you don’t pay for web search?

It’s easy for an Internet service provider to include a control agreement in your contract.

The question is: should they be allowed to do so?

What if your cell provider only allowed you to call businesses “in their network” (in other words, businesses who pay the provider)?

Next week, we’ll spend some time discussing fairness (not on Exam II).
