

Who Owns Information Collected About You?

Can I sell information about your car and driving?

What if my car does it for me, automatically?

- My car sees your car pass at high speed.
- Your license plate is visible.
- So I sell that information to all insurance companies, rental car companies, and so forth...
- except for my own, because I don't want them to know that I drive in high-risk areas!