

Companies Must Deal with Many Governments

---

Multi-national companies have to deal with governments individually

Google vs. China: Google left China rather than allowing the government to inspect and control data in its datacenters. All Google services are now completely banned in China.

Facebook vs. EU: EU forbade Facebook from sending “private” information about European users to servers in the US.