

Politics Plays a Major Role in Corporate Law

Often, these relationships are dominated by politics and interest in promoting a country's own companies over those of other countries.

Australia, for example,

- instituted a law that requires
- anyone who links to a news site (URL)
- to pay that site.