

Computation Requires Several Steps

What about computation?

As before, we need multiple steps:

1. combine sensor data over time
2. identify and classify types of objects/entities
3. need to understand the physics of the things identified

