

Computing as a Service ... in the “Cloud” !

Eventually, this idea became cloud computing, the idea of using someone else’s computer as a service.

Not just individuals:

- company A can use company B’s computers
- to provide a public Internet service.
- Customers (or ads!) pay A, and A pays B.

