

Summary

- DSM = Distributed Shared Memory
 - Processes share pages, rather than sending/receiving messages
 - Useful abstraction: allows processes to use same code as if they were all running over the same OS (multiprocessor OS)
- DSM can be implemented over a message-passing interface
- Invalidate vs. Update protocols