

Thus, the root locus helps us visualize the trade-off between all the specs in terms of K .

However, for order > 2 , there will generally be no direct formula for the closed-loop poles as a function of K .

Our goal: develop simple rules for (approximately) sketching the root locus in the general case.