- At some level it looks simple:

$$[3] +_5 [4] = [3 + 4] = [7] = [2].$$

- But we need to know that this operation is independent of the choice made, since it's an operation on sets.

Definition

We say that an operation is well-defined if it is independent of all choices made in its definition.