

- Recall addition modulo n :

$$[3] + 5[4] = [7] = [2]$$

- and this always works!
- In particular, for any $x, y \in \mathbb{N}$, we always have that $$[x] +_n [y]$$

is some other equivalence class.