

- We define a “triangle” of numbers, where
  - each row has one entry more than the row above it
  - they are centered
- Generated by the following rules:
  - The outside numbers are always 1;
  - Each number on the inside is the sum of the two numbers above it.