

What's Most Difficult

I am finding vectors as the most difficult problems in class right now.

The concept with the kinetic and static forces.

Trying to remember the formulas and im rusty with trig so all the sin, cos, and tan is tricky for me.

Tension / setting up problem / vectors / free body diagrams.

pulley problems

remembering to do the preflights / Staying awake.