Preflight 19.1

A converging lens is used to project a real image onto a screen. A piece of black tape is then placed over the upper half of the lens.