

Converging Lens: Consider the case where the shape of the lens is such that light rays parallel to the axis of the mirror are all “focused” to a common spot a distance f behind the lens:

