

"But why must I treat the measuring device classically? What will happen to me if I don't?"

--Eugene Wigner

"There is obviously no such limitation - I can measure the energy and look at my watch; then I know both energy and time!"

--L. D. Landau, on the time-energy uncertainty principle