PAUS   The PAUS command pauses data storage. If storage is already paused or reset then this command is ignored.

REST   The REST command resets the data buffers. The REST command can be sent at any time - any storage in progress, paused or not, will be reset. This command will erase the data buffer.